A photograph showing the interior of a food processing facility. On the left, there is a large stainless steel machine with a control panel featuring several buttons and switches. A conveyor belt system is visible, with a metal mesh tray resting on it. The floor is covered in blue material. In the background, a doorway leads to another area, and a white bucket is visible near the entrance. The walls are light-colored and appear to be made of panels.

A photograph of the interior of a small room, likely a storage or utility space. The walls are covered in light-colored vertical corrugated metal. On the left, there is a large window with a white frame. Two black rectangular redaction boxes are placed over the window. To the right, a white door is open, revealing a hallway or another room beyond. A black rectangular redaction box is placed over the door handle. The floor is covered with blue carpeting. In the bottom right corner, there is some clutter, including a cardboard box and a white object. A large, faint watermark "E GRU" is visible across the right side of the image.

A photograph of a mobile metal frame on wheels in a hallway. The frame is positioned in the center of the hallway, facing away from the camera towards a bright doorway at the end. The frame has a rectangular top section and a base with four wheels. A bright light source is visible through the doorway, creating a strong glare and illuminating the hallway. The walls are light-colored and appear to be made of vertical panels. The floor is dark and reflective. There are some faint, semi-transparent text overlays on the image, including "COM" on the left and "GRU" on the right.

A photograph of a room with a slanted ceiling, likely an attic or a room with a vaulted roof. In the foreground, there is a white desk with two computer monitors. The monitor on the right is a CRT monitor, and the one on the left is a smaller, older model. A red chair is partially visible behind the desk. The floor is covered with reddish-brown square tiles. A doorway in the background leads to a hallway with a white wall and a doorway further down. The image is heavily redacted with several black rectangular boxes covering parts of the desk, the hallway, and the wall. A large, faint watermark reading 'GRU' is visible across the right side of the image.
